

FALSE TESTIMONY GIVEN.

Actions Against Reuben Cohen May Be Dismissed.

A Mixed-Up Case in Which Gold-fogle Springs a Legal Trap.

Civil Justice Henry M. Goldfogle and Lawyer Maurice B. Blumenthal, of 150 Nassau street, are preparing orders of discontinuance of the actions brought against Reuben Cohen by Sacharize Isser for $1,252.37, Simon Silver and Martin Tarshetz for $505.00, and by Harris Kaplan for $2,242.50.

The orders are based upon the decision of Judge Freeman, in the Superior Court last week, dismissing the complaint of Israel Rosen against the same defendant Cohen.

June 9 Cohen was indicted on charges of fraud preferred against him by the above five creditors. His bail was fixed at $5,000 by Judge Cowling, in General Sessions Court.

The only one willing or able to give bail for Cohen was a brother, Nathan, who lived in Richmond, Va., and who, for that reason, was not eligible as surety. Justice Goldfogle, the accused man's attorney, finally prevailed upon the Bank of New York, National Banking Association, of 41 Wall street, to give bonds for Cohen. This was done upon the brother depositing $5,000 with the State Bank of Virginia, in Richmond, to the credit of the New York banking-house, whose Cashier, Mr. Meade, accordingly became surety, and Reuben Cohen was released.

The case was afterwards frequently on the court calendar for trial, but the prosecution, for one reason or another, was never ready, and Judge Cowling finally ordered the surety discharged and released Cohen on his own recognizance.

In the mean time civil suits, supplementary proceedings, third party orders and multitudinous other legal manoeuvres were instituted by the creditors against Reuben until Dec. 4, when Israel Rosen's case came up against him in a so-called judgment creditor's action before Judge Freeman in the Superior Court.

The gist of this action was that Reuben Cohen had fraudulently transferred all his cash, amounting to about $5,000, to one Charles Levy and Harris Cohen (a brother of Reuben), who in turn delivered the money to Nathan Cohen, the

ON TRIAL. That's a good way to buy a medicine, but it's a pretty hard condition under which to sell it.

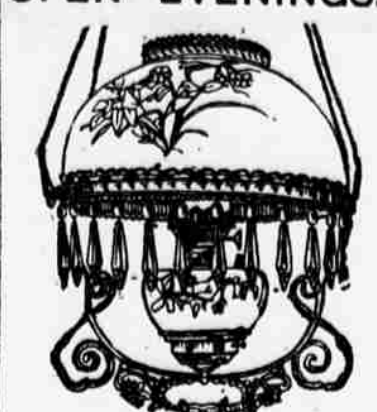

Perhaps you've noticed that the ordinary bit of miss medicine don't attempt it.

The only remedy of its kind so remarkable in its effects that it can be sold on this plan is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. As a blood-cleaner, strength-restorer, and flesh-builder, there's nothing like it known to medical science. In every disease where the fault is in the liver or the blood, as Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Biliousness, and the most stubborn Skin, Scalp, and Scrofulous affections, it is guaranteed in every case to benefit or cure, or you have your money back.

To every sufferer from Catarrh, no matter how bad the case or of how long standing, the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy say this: "If we can't cure it, perfectly and permanently, we'll pay you $500 in cash." Sold by druggists.

Every day increases the popularity and sale of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. The reason is that prices have been cut in half. Don't forget this.

Virginia brother, who in turn deposited the money in the Richmond bank as the security necessary for obtaining the bail in the criminal action.

This claim brought in the Richmond bank and the New York Banking Association as co-defendants. They were represented by Lawyers Maurice B. Blumenthal, of this city, and Blumenthal, of Richmond. Thirty-eight witnesses were called by David Leventritt, Rosen's lawyer.

One of these, Lewis Levene, a truckman, swore that he had carted away many truckloads of stuff from Cohen's place of business at night and that Cohen had admitted to him that he was about to defraud his creditors, but begged Levene not to mention the fact to anybody.
